Use of Electrical Equipment at Shows

The Royal Kennel Club is becoming increasingly concerned at the amount of electrical equipment being used by exhibitors at shows, including hair dryers and hair straighteners and other grooming devices.

Electrical equipment should not be brought to shows unless absolutely necessary. In rare instances where it might be required, it should be PAT tested and permission sought from the secretary of the show before it is used.

The Royal Kennel Club has also been informed of recent instances of exhibitors commandeering certain areas of a venue in order to have access to power points so as to use electrical grooming equipment. This is totally unacceptable and particularly unfair on the breeds whose allocated areas have been cramped because of this selfish behaviour.

Security at Shows

In light of recent events the Royal Kennel Club would like to issue a reminder to all Societies of the importance of security at dog shows. The Royal Kennel Club understands that due to the nature of dog shows and the quantity of paraphernalia exhibitors bring it would be extremely difficult for show organisers to take on the issue of security alone, therefore we would reiterate the advice being given by the Police and security services, that everyone in the UK should remain vigilant and this applies to those organising and taking part in dog shows.

The importance of exhibitors feeling that they and their dogs are safe when attending a show cannot be underestimated. We would therefore remind you of the importance of the need for show organisers and exhibitors to remain mindful of potential dangers and that all visitors generally need to be vigilant and alert.

Furthermore the society should provide robust notification informing exhibitors of where to report to should they see anything suspicious or of concern, and of the evacuation procedures in place.

Exhibitors are reminded that the Royal Kennel Club Regulations for the Preparation of Dogs for Exhibition will be STRICTLY enforced. Therefore the chalking, powdering or spraying (with the exception of water) of exhibits within the precincts of the show is forbidden.

Dog Fouling and Grooming Waster (Animal)

Any owner, exhibitor handler or other person in charge of a dog is requested to remove immediately any fouling caused by their dog(s) and/or any grooming waste at any Royal Kennel Club Licensed Show within the licensed venue and within the environs of that event including car; caravan parks and approaches.

DEFINITIONS OF CLASSES

In the following definitions, a Challenge Certificate includes any Show award that counts towards the title of Champion under the Rules of any governing body recognised by the Royal Kennel Club.

Wins at Championship Shows in breed classes where Challenge Certificates are not on offer shall be counted as wins at Open Shows.

ABOUT YOUR JUDGE Lucy Mottram

My thanks to the Hungarian Puli Club for this super invite to judge your breed club open show. It is always an honour to be asked to judge at a club show, but this occasion feels particularly meaningful as I am aware that my appointment was decided by a vote from the membership. Thank you sincerely for providing me with this wonderful opportunity.

My experience in dog showing began with Junior Handling classes with my mother's Bearded Collies. This experience sparked a passion for the sport that has stayed with me throughout my life. For over 25 years, I have been actively exhibiting Polish Lowland Sheepdogs, enjoying some memorable wins along the way. These years have deepened my appreciation for pastoral breeds and reinforced my commitment to the dog showing community.

My first judging appointment was in 1996. In 2017, I had the honour of awarding my first set of Challenge Certificates to Polish Lowlands, and I am now approved to award CCs to five breeds and delighted to have judged my own breed at Crufts.

Pastoral breeds have always captured my interest, and amongst them, the Puli stands out as unique and unmistakable. Over the years, my attention has frequently been drawn to your delightful breed, and I look forward to judging your Puli's at this special judging appointment

DOGS IN VEHICLES ON HOT DAYS

Your dog is vulnerable and at risk during hot weather and the Royal Kennel Club offers the following guidance to help guide you through the do's and don'ts travelling to and whilst at Royal Kennel Club licensed events.

- When travelling to a show please take a moment to consider whether the route to the show is on a busy holiday route, and leave earlier to avoid increased time in traffic jams.
- If your vehicle is not air-conditioned seriously consider whether travelling to the show is a good idea at all.
- The vehicle should be as fully ventilated as possible, and plenty of stops should be taken, with lots of water available to drink.
- Ensure your dog is not sitting in full sunlight. There should be plenty of free flowing air around the dog.
- When at the show, never leave your dog in the vehicle.
- Keep the dog in the shade - take your own shade for example a large umbrella and always have plenty of water available to drink so your dog stays well hydrated.
- Avoid your dog taking part in unnecessary exertion, or from standing in exposed sunlight for extended lengths of time.

Remember, if you feel hot your dog is very likely to feel much hotter and dehydrated, and this could lead to dire results. Please look after your dog's welfare.

Your dog is vulnerable and AT RISK if left in a vehicle in high temperatures and even on days considered as slightly warm

Please take care of your dog

If your dog is found to be at risk forcible entry to your vehicle may be necessary without liability for any damage caused

Anyone whose dog is entered at a Royal Kennel Club licensed event should take all reasonable steps to ensure the needs of their dog(s) are met, and should not put a dog's health and welfare at risk by any action, default, omission or otherwise.

The Committee does not accept responsibility for the content of advertisements or products advertised. We wish to remind exhibitors that grooming products on sale may not meet the requirements of Regulations for the preparation of dogs for exhibition.

An objection may, however, be lodged by an official of the Show or by anyone so deputed by the Royal Kennel Club. It will be the responsibility of the individual who lodges the objection or the official (as appropriate) to substantiate the grounds for the objection. The Royal Kennel Club will substantiate the grounds for an objection made on its behalf.
