JUDGE FOR SHOW - Rose Anne Mckenna (Mijoro)

I bought my first bulldog in 2011, a red and white pet boy called Mikey. Mikey helped fill the void when I sadly lost my Dad to cancer 7 months earlier. Mikey was a pet not a 'show dog' but he was the most gentlest soul I'd ever met and a very much loved boy who brought me lots of comfort and joy; the reason I fell in love with the breed and he lived until he was 9 years old with a good quality of life. He also taught me the importance of researching for a good breeder of this breed.

In 2013 I started searching for a new puppy to join myself and Mikey and started by attending shows, researching show breeders and kennels. I was lucky to be in touch with Maria Taylor of Hillplace Bulldogs and after many conversations with Maria she agreed to allow me one of her puppy's, that being a red and white girl called Hillplace Ginger Spice, whom I adored and called her Gracie. She was a beautiful example of the breed and one I wish I had on the end of my lead today. I still admire Maria and her kennel today and will be forever grateful for her trusting me with Gracie.

I am still chasing the dream of owning and producing a UK Champion and I won't give up that chase. I started my judging career in 2023 completing and passing all of the relevant exams and travelling to complete seminars. My first judging appointment was in July 2024, 4 mixed classes in Scotland, followed by 5 classes in May 2025 at Chesterfield Canine Society, where I had the highest entry in the schedule (32). In both of these shows my principal winners went on to take group placings; Utility Group 3 and Utility Group 2. I have achieved 3 KC stud book numbers with my show dogs; Hillplace Ginger Spice (Gracie) Connie Francis at Mijoro (Lacey) and Mijoro DayDot (Helga).

Please take care of your dog
If your dog is found to be at risk, forcible entry to your vehicle may be necessary without liability for any damage caused

Use of Electrical Equipment at Shows

The Royal Kennel Club is becoming increasingly concerned at the amount of electrical equipment being used by exhibitors at shows, including hair dryers and hair straighteners and other grooming devices.

Electrical equipment should not be brought to shows unless absolutely necessary. In rare instances where it might be required, it should be PAT tested and permission sought from the secretary of the show before it is used.

The Royal Kennel Club has also been informed of recent instances of exhibitors commandeering certain areas of a venue in order to have access to power points so as to use electrical grooming equipment. This is totally unacceptable and particularly unfair on the breeds whose allocated areas have been cramped because of this selfish behaviour.

Security at Shows

In light of recent events the Royal Kennel Club would like to issue a reminder to all Societies of the importance of security at dog shows. The Royal Kennel Club understands that due to the nature of dog shows and the quantity of paraphernalia exhibitors bring it would be extremely difficult for show organisers to take on the issue of security alone, therefore we would reiterate the advice being given by the Police and security services, that everyone in the UK should remain vigilant and this applies to those organising and taking part in dog shows.

The importance of exhibitors feeling that they and their dogs are safe when attending a show cannot be underestimated. We would therefore remind you of the importance of the need for show organisers and exhibitors to remain mindful of potential dangers and that all visitors generally need to be vigilant and alert.

Furthermore the society should provide robust notification informing exhibitors of where to report to should they see anything suspicious or of concern, and of the evacuation procedures in place.

Welfare Of Dogs

Anyone whose dog is entered at a Royal Kennel Club licensed event should take all reasonable steps to ensure the needs of their dog(s) are met, and should not put a dog's health and welfare at risk by any action, default, omission or otherwise. Breach of Royal Kennel Club Regulations in this respect may be referred to the Board for disciplinary action under Royal Kennel Club Rules and Regulations

THE ATTENTION OF ALL EXHIBITORS IS DRAWN TO THE ROYAL KENNEL CLUB REGULATION RE: FOULING which reads

Any owner or other person in charge of a dog is required to remove as soon as possible any fouling caused by their dog(s) at any Royal Kennel Club Licensed Show within the environs of that event including car & caravan parks and approaches. You are asked to take special care of the venue car park, approaches and exercise areas

DOGS IN VEHICLES ON HOT DAYS

Your dog is vulnerable and at risk during hot weather and the Royal Kennel Club offers the following guidance to help guide you through the do's and don'ts travelling to and whilst at KC licensed events.

- When travelling to a show please take a moment to consider whether the route to the show is on a busy holiday route, and leave earlier to avoid increased time in traffic jams
- If your vehicle is not air-conditioned seriously consider whether travelling to the show is a good idea at all
- The vehicle should be as fully ventilated as possible, and plenty of stops should be taken, with lots of water available to drink
- Ensure your dog is not sitting in full sunlight. There should be plenty of free flowing air around the dog
- When at the show, never leave your dog in the vehicle
- Keep the dog in the shade - take your own shade for example a large umbrella and always have plenty of water available to drink so your dog stays well hydrated
- Avoid your dog taking part in unnecessary exertion, or from standing in exposed sunlight for extended lengths of time.

Remember, if you feel hot your dog is very likely to feel much hotter and dehydrated, and this could lead to dire results. Please look after your dog's welfare.

WARNING: IF YOUR DOG IS FOUND TO BE AT RISK FORCIBLE ENTRY TO YOUR VEHICLE MAY BE NECESSARY WITHOUT LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGE CAUSED.

Anyone whose dog is entered at a Royal Kennel Club licensed event should take all reasonable steps to ensure the needs of their dog(s) are met, and should not put a dog's health and welfare at risk by any action, default, omission or otherwise. Breach of Royal Kennel Club Regulations in this respect may be referred to the Board for disciplinary action under Royal Kennel Club Rules and Regulations.
